

Live online forum with SEP presidential candidates

One month until the US elections: the political issues facing the working class

5 October 2016

On Friday, October 7, at 7:00 Eastern Time, Socialist Equality Party presidential candidate Jerry White and vice presidential candidate Niles Niemuth will join SEP National Secretary Joseph Kishore in a discussion on the state of the US election campaign one month before the vote.

The discussion will be streamed live on the Socialist Equality Party's Facebook Page, fb.com/sepus. Listeners will be able to ask questions and make comments on the video feed.

White and Niemuth will talk about the evolution of the state of US politics, the international framework in which the elections are being held and the experiences of the SEP campaign.
