

War, genocide and the fight for free speech

Stop the deportation of Momodou Taal!

5 October 2024

Cornell University PhD student Momodou Taal, a citizen of Britain and The Gambia, has been threatened with suspension and the revocation of his F-1 student visa by Cornell for participating in peaceful protests against the Israeli genocide in Gaza. On Saturday, he joined his attorney Eric Lee for a discussion on his case, the mass movement against the genocide and the implications for free speech. The discussion was moderated by World Socialist Web Site writer Andrea Peters.
